The Resurrection of Christ shows...Life is meaningful:

Today we are celebrating Easter Sunday which is the primary feast of all feasts because it is the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Biblically, our Christian preaching, faith, and mission to preach the good news to all people and to all walks of life would have been worthless if Jesus Christ did not rise from the dead.

Theologically, the paschal mystery of Christ which is His passion, death and resurrection would be incomplete if Easter has not happened. Liturgically, all feasts in the liturgical calendar revolve around the observance of Easter. Therefore, the glory of Easter is very much present in the resurrection of Christ.

This commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus provides us the answers to such questions as: What is the meaning of life? After suffering, what will happen next, suffering again? After death, would there be a hope of resurrection of eternal life? Would there be a change? Would there be a difference after the resurrection of Jesus? Jesus by His resurrection is showing us that life is not at all meaningless. After suffering, there is still happiness. Happy Easter!
