Look upon your neighbor with the eyes of Christ:

Jesus faced a severe testing when he returned to his hometown, not simply as the carpenter's son, but now as a rabbi with disciples. Jesus startled his familiar audience with a seeming rebuke that no prophet or servant of God can receive honor among his own people.

The people of Nazareth took offense at Jesus and refused to listen to what he had to say. They despised his preaching because he was a mere workman, a carpenter, and a layman who had no formal training by a scholar or teacher. They also despised him because of his undistinguished family background.

How familiarity can breed contempt. Jesus could do no mighty works in their midst because they were closed-minded and unbelieving towards him. If people have come together to hate and to refuse to understand, then they will see no other point of view than their own and they will refuse to love and accept others. How do you treat those who seem disagreeable to you?
