Jesus says: I am the living bread that came from heaven.

Do we hunger for the "bread of life"? Jesus offers us the abundant supernatural life of heaven itself - but we can miss it or even refuse it. To refuse Jesus is to refuse eternal life, unending life with the Heavenly Father. To accept Jesus as the bread of heaven is not only life and spiritual nourishment for this world but glory in the world to come.

The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist or Lord's Supper is an intimate union with Christ. Jesus is our living bread which sustains us in this life. May we always hunger for the bread which come from heaven and find in it the nourishment and strength we need to love and serve Him wholeheartedly. May we always live in the joy, peace, and unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, both now and in the age to come.
