Knights of Columbus 2022 Cash Draw Calendar in support of the NEO Kids Foundation

Our previous cash draw calendars raised over $120,000 for the Hospice expansion. With this success under our belts, we decided to continue with the calendars for a further 2 years (2022 and 2023) to raise funds for the NEO Kids Foundation to increase our hospital's capacity to treat more children in Sudbury, and to create more children friendly hospital rooms.

The calendars for 2022, with a cash prize every day of the year, are now available and will be sold before the masses on the weekends of October 23 and 30. They can also be obtained by calling Frank Javor at (705) 566-8368. They cost just $20, and make excellent Christmas gifts. Please support this worthwhile cause.

Knights of Columbus Home Made Regular or Hot Italian Sausages

Once again, Knights of Columbus Centennial Councils 6074 and 1387, are making and selling regular or hot Italian sausages at $30.00 for 5 pounds. Due to several requests the sausage meat can also be obtained in bulk (for sauce, lasagna, etc). D & A meats on Paris St. will provide the meat. Sausage orders will be taken (and paid for at that time) after each mass on the weekend of October 23rd or by calling Julio Navarro at 560-2730. Sausages are to be picked up at St. Andrew's Parish (north parking lot entrance) on Friday, November 5 between 1:00 and 5:00pm or on Saturday November 6 between 9:00am and 2:00pm.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark's Gospel that reports Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?
