PRAYER OF LOVE

Lord, help me today to do all for love. If I keep silent, let me be silent by love.
If I speak, let me speak with love. If I pardon, let it be with a loving heart.
Let love be rooted in me, and from that root, nothing but good will grow.
Amen.

God expects us to be merciful as he is merciful:

What does Jesus' story tell us about true love for one's neighbour?

First, we must be willing to help even if others brought trouble on themselves through their own fault or negligence.

Second, our love and concern to help others in need must be practical. Good intentions and showing pity, or empathizing with others, are not enough.

And lastly, our love for others must be as wide and as inclusive as God's love. God excludes no one from His care and concern. God's love is unconditional. So, we must be ready to do good to others for their sake, just as God is good to us.

Jesus not only taught God's way of love, but he showed how far God was willing to go to share in our suffering and to restore us to wholeness of life and happiness. True compassion not only identifies and empathizes with the one who is in pain but takes that pain on oneself to bring freedom and restoration.
