

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
July 24th- 17th Sunday of Ordinary Time

God is always faithful to answer. Sometimes His answer is a much desired “yes”. Sometimes His answer is a merciful “no”. Sometimes His answer is a faith-building “not yet”. And sometimes, when an answer cannot be found, His answer is simply “TRUST ME”. S. Sanchez

God's generosity towards us:

Jesus' parable of the annoying and bothersome neighbour shows a worst-case scenario of what might happen when an unexpected guest shows up in the middle of the night! If a neighbour can be imposed upon and coerced into giving bread in the middle of the night, will not God, our heavenly Father and provider, also treat us with kind and generous care no matter how troubling or inconvenient the circumstances might appear?

Jesus states emphatically, how much more will the heavenly Father give! St. Augustine of Hippo (354-430 AD) reminds us that "God, who does not sleep and who awakens us from sleep that we may ask, gives much more graciously." The Lord Jesus assures us that we can bring our needs to our heavenly Father who is always ready to give not only what we need, but more than we can ask. God gives the best He has. He freely pours out the blessing of his Holy Spirit upon us so that we may be filled with the abundance of His provision. Do we approach our heavenly Father with confidence in His mercy and kindness towards us?
