The priceless exchange and everlasting reward:

Jesus tells His followers to not be fearful or anxious about their present lives and future security. He urges them to sell their possessions and to give their money to those who need it most - especially those who have nothing to provide for their present needs and welfare. This seems to go against our instinct to hoard and save for the future.

Jesus warns that money and possessions will not last and can be taken away at any moment by a thief or by death itself. But there is one treasure which can never be lost or destroyed because it is kept secure by God himself. It is the Lord Himself and His kingdom of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. This treasure is worth far more than anything we could possibly acquire on our own. If you make the Lord your treasure, you will have in your possession, the greatest source of joy and lasting peace and security.
