

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

October 2nd- 27th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Lord, open our ears and hearts to Your Word and presence, that planted once more, like a seed in the ground,
we may be encouraged and given new life.
Open our lives and the life of our church community to Your Word and the way of Your Kingdom.

Amen

The love of God compels us to give our best:

How can we love God and others selflessly and unconditionally? Scripture tells us that God Himself is love. He is the author of life and the source of all true relationships of love and friendship. He created us in love, for love and He fills our hearts with the boundless love that gives all that is good for the sake of the beloved.

God honors the faithful servant who loves and serves with a generous heart. He is ever ready to work in and through each one of us by His Spirit for His glory. We must remember, however, that God can never be indebted to us. We have no claim on Him. His love compels us to give Him our best!

The Scriptures remind us repeatedly that God's love is steadfast, loyal and lasts forever - it will never cease. Saint Augustine of Hippo writes, "God loves each one of us as if there were only one of us to love."
