

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

October 9th- 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Heavenly Father, on Thanksgiving Day, we bow our hearts to You and pray.
 We give You thanks for all You've done, especially for the gift of Jesus, Your Son.
 For beauty in nature, Your glory we see, for joy and health, friends and family.
 For daily provision, Your mercy and care, these are the blessings You graciously share.
 So today we offer this response of praise with a promise to follow You all of our days.

Mary Fairchild

Ingratitude leads to lack of love and kindness, and intolerance towards others:

In this weekend Gospel, why did only one leper out of ten return to show gratitude? Gratefulness, another word which expresses gratitude of heart and a thankful disposition, is related to grace - which means the release of loveliness. Gratitude is the homage of the heart which responds with graciousness in expressing an act of thanksgiving. The Samaritan approached Jesus reverently and gave praise to God.

If we do not recognize and appreciate the mercy and help shown to us, we will be ungrateful and unkind towards others. Ingratitude is forgetfulness or a poor return for kindness received. Ingratitude easily leads to lack of charity and intolerance towards others, as well as to other vices, such as complaining, grumbling, discontentment, pride and presumption. How often have we been ungrateful to our parents, pastors, teachers and neighbors? Do we express gratitude to God for His abundant help and mercy towards us and are we gracious, kind and merciful towards our neighbors in their time of need and support?
