17th Sunday Reflection

The old and new treasures of God's word:

Why does Jesus compare a "trained scribe" with a "householder who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old" (Matthew 13:52)? Some people love to store old, prized possessions along with their newly acquired prizes. Others are eager to get rid of the old to make room for the new. A person who in his right mind would throw away an old precious jewel or some old gold coins simply because they were ancient and maybe tarnished a bit? Precious gems and gold do not lose their value with age!

Like choice vintage wine they increase in value. Jesus' parable of the "old" and the "new" certainly points to the "older covenants" which God made with his covenanted people of the Old Testament, beginning with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and with Moses on Mount Sinai, and with King David the precursor of the Messiah.

Jesus did not come to abolish the Old Covenant but to fulfill it. The Lord calls us to treasure all his words - all his commandments, promises, precepts, and teaching. Do we promise to keep all of God's commands? The Lord gives strength, blessing, and joy to those who treasure all his words.
