25th Sunday Reflection

God is generous and gives us work for his kingdom: God is generous in opening the doors of His kingdom to all who will enter, both those who have labored a lifetime for Him and those who come at the last hour. While the reward is the same, the motive for one's labor can make all the difference. Some work only for reward. They will only put in as much effort as they think they will get back. Others labor out of love and joy for the opportunity to work and to serve others.

The Lord Jesus calls each one of us to serve God and His kingdom with joy and zeal and to serve our neighbor with a generous spirit as well. The Lord Jesus wants to fill each one of us with the power and strength of the Holy Spirit so we can bear great fruit for God's kingdom (the fruit of peace, joy, righteousness, love) and bring the fruit of His kingdom to our neighbor as well.

Paul the Apostle reminds us, "Whatever your task, work heartily, as serving the Lord and not others, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward - you are serving the Lord Christ". Do we perform our daily tasks and responsibilities with cheerfulness and diligence for the Lord's sake? And do we give generously to others, especially to those in need of our care and support?
