Don't miss the most important engagement of all:

To show up for a wedding party without proper attire and travel arrangements is like trying to get into a special event today that requires a prearranged permit or reservation. You just don't get in without the proper pass.

Jesus warns us that there are consequences for being unprepared. There are certain things you cannot obtain at the last moment. For example, students cannot prepare for their exams when the day of testing is already upon them. A person cannot get the right kind of character, strength and skill required for a task at hand unless they already possess it, such as a captain with courage and nautical skills who must steer a ship through a dangerous storm at sea.

Our eternal welfare depends on our hearing, and many have trained themselves to not hear. We will not be prepared to meet the Lord, face to face, when He calls us on the day of judgment, unless we listen to Him today. The Lord invites us to feast at His heavenly banquet table.

NOVEMBER HOLY DAYS

November 1st - All Saints Day

All Saints Day is a solemn Holy Day celebrated each year on the first of November. On this Holy day of obligation, Catholics attend Mass to honor all the Saints who have entered the Kingdom of Heaven.

November 2nd - All Souls Day

On this somber day, also known as "The Commemoration of All Faithful Departed", Catholics pray for all their fellow faithful who have died and are awaiting full sanctification and moral perfection before entering the kingdom of heaven. Most Catholics use this day to remember and honor family members and friends who have died through prayer and reflection.

November 16th - Dedication of Saint John Lateran

Though many people may believe that St. Peter's Basilica is the official Church of the Pope, it is actually the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran! Located in Rome, this Basilica has always been the official Church of the Pope. The dedication of a Church is a feast for all its parishioners, and because this is the Pope's Cathedral it is the Parish Church of all Catholics.

November 18th - Dedication of Saints Peter and Paul

This feast day celebrates both the dedication for St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City and the Basilica of Saint Paul Outside the Walls in Rome. Both Basilicas were built by the Emperor Constantine the Great in the 4th Century and are popular pilgrimage sites. Both St. Peter and St. Paul are worshiped as Saints who shaped the early Church, thus, their statues prominently stand at the base of the steps in front of Saint Peter's Basilica. Saint Peter is famous for holding keys in his hands, which represent holding the "keys to the kingdom of heaven". St. Paul holds a book, representing his epistles in the New Testament, and the sword, representing a reminder to all of the means of his martyrdom.

November 30th - Feast of Saint Andrew

Saint Andrew was born in 6 B.C. in Galilee and was called, to become the first disciple of Jesus and a "fisher of men." Andrew was an Apostle, present at the Last Supper and was martyred by Crucifixion on November 30th, 60 A.D. in Patras, Greece. Relics of St. Andrew are now housed in the Basilica of Saint Andrew in Patras, Greece; in the Duomo di Sant'Andrew in Amalfi, Italy; in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Cathedral in Edinburgh, Scotland; and in the Church of St. Andrew and St. Albert in Warsaw, Poland, among others. St. Andrew is the Patron Saint of Scotland and as such, his feast day November 30th is the National day of Scotland – he is also the Patron Saint of Greece, Russia, Amalfi, Barbados, singers, fisherman, maidens, and mothers.
