

WELCOME TO
ST. ANDREW THE APOSTLE CATHOLIC CHURCH
FEB. 11TH, 2024 – 6TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME—YEAR—B

Dear God the Father in heaven who always looks for us in everything that we do and guides us to every path that we take. We are not worthy of Your miracle yet You never close Your door for us sinners. You heal every piece of us with Your love and you shower us with Your miracles and blessings. Thank you for Your unconditional and endless love for us. We will continuously praise You in calmness and even in storms for we know that You are always here with us. Forgive us for we hurt you always. Amen

God of goodness and mercy,
Hear my prayer as I begin this Lenten journey with You.
Guide me as I humbly seek to repent and return to Your love.
May humility guide my efforts to be reconciled with You and live forever in Your abundant grace. Transform me this Lent, heavenly Father. give me the strength to commit myself to grow closer to You each day. Amen.

The Lord Jesus can make me clean:

Jesus touched the leper who approached him and he made him whole and clean. Why was this so remarkable? Lepers were outcasts of society. They were driven from their homes and communities and left to fend for themselves. Their physical condition was terrible as they slowly lost the use of their limbs and withered away. They were not only shunned but regarded as "already dead" even by their relatives. The Jewish law forbade anyone from touching or approaching a leper, lest ritual defilement occur.

This leper did something quite remarkable. He approached Jesus confidently and humbly, expecting that Jesus could and would heal him. Normally a leper would be stoned or at least ward off if he tried to come near a rabbi. Jesus not only grants the man his request, but he demonstrates the personal love, compassion, and tenderness of God in his physical touch.

Do we show them kindness and offer them mercy and help as Jesus did? The Lord is always ready to show us his mercy and to free us from whatever makes us unclean, unapproachable, or unloving towards others.

What Are the Key Days During Lent?

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent. You may have noticed people with a smudged, black cross on their foreheads. Those are ashes from the Ash Wednesday service. The ashes symbolize our grief for the things we've done wrong and the resulting division of imperfect people from a perfect God.

Maundy Thursday is the day before Good Friday. It commemorates the night before Jesus died, when He shared the Passover meal with His closest friends and followers.

Good Friday is the day Christians remember Jesus' death. The "Good" reflects how Jesus' death was a sacrifice on our behalf so we can receive God's forgiveness for our wrongs, or sins.

Easter Sunday is the joyful celebration of Jesus rising from the dead to give us the opportunity of eternal life. While people still die, Jesus made the way for people to have a relationship with God in this life and to spend eternity with Him in heaven.
