

WELCOME TO
ST. ANDREW THE APOSTLE CATHOLIC CHURCH
JUNE 23RD, 2024 – 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME –YEAR–B

Dear Lord, In this life there will be storms. Storms that will cause our world to rock and shake. Storms that make us feel like we are sinking. Teach me to trust in You so that when the unexpected storms of life come, I will expect peace in the midst of those storms, knowing that You are near, You hear my cries, and You are with me and for me. Lord, bring peace and calm to the storms I am facing or may face in the future. Remind us all that You are with us and that You control the waters.
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Why are you afraid?

Jesus' sleeping presence on the storm-tossed sea reveals the sleeping faith of his disciples. They feared for their lives even though their Lord and Master was with them in the boat. Do we recognize the Lord's presence with us, especially when we meet the storms of adversity, sorrow, and temptation? Whenever we encounter trouble, the Lord is there with the same reassuring message: "It is I, do not be afraid."

Faith enables us to relate to God rightly and confidently, with trust and reliance, by believing and adhering to his word, because he is utterly reliable and trustworthy. If we want to live, grow, and persevere in faith, then it must be nourished with the word of God. Fear does not need to cripple us from taking right action or rob us of our trust and reliance on God. Courage working with faith enables us to embrace God's word of truth and love with confidence and to act on it with firm hope in God's promises.

The love of God strengthens us in our faith and trust in him and enables us to act with justice and kindness towards our neighbor even in the face of opposition or harm. Do we allow the love of Christ to rule in our hearts and mind, and to move our will to choose what is good in accordance with his will?
