

Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
February 23rd 2025 – 7th Sunday in Ordinary time - Year C

“Love one another as I have loved you” (John 13:34)

Heavenly Father, I pray that I may live and grow more like the Lord Jesus in the choices I make. Father, I know that I can never love those that hate and despise me in my own strength, but I pray that in Your grace You would help me to make the right choices so that my will is align to Your perfect will - and Your love flows through me to others to Your praise and glory in Jesus name I pray. Amen.

Let us pray for the health and recovery of Pope Francis

May the Lord, through our Lady’s powerful intercession, grant him renewed strength, health and energy in his vocation to serve the Church as the Successor of Peter and the Vicar of Christ on earth.

Do good to those who hate you:

God is good to the unjust as well as the just. His love embraces saint and sinner alike. God seeks our highest good and teaches us to seek the greatest good of others, even those who hate and abuse us. Our love for others, even those who are ungrateful and selfish towards us, must be marked by the same kindness and mercy which God has shown to us. It is easier to show kindness and mercy when we can expect to benefit from doing so. How much harder it is when we can expect nothing in return.

Our prayer for those who do us ill both breaks the power of revenge and releases the power of love to do good in the face of evil. He gives power and grace to those who believe in and accept the gift of the Holy Spirit. His love conquers all, even our hurts, fears, prejudices and griefs. Jesus' love and grace has power to heal and to save us from destruction. That is why St. Paul the Apostle tells those who know the love and mercy of Jesus Christ to "bless and not curse.. Nor take revenge.. and to overcome evil with good." (Romans 12:14,17,21). Do we know the power of God's love, mercy and righteousness for overcoming evil with good?
