Welcome to

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

August 17th 2025 – 20th Sunday in Ordinary time - Year C

Jesus, You have asked that in choosing to follow You that we be willing not to separate ourselves from the world but to live and walk differently in this world. Help us to be a light, even when challenged to authentically witness to truth and love, revealing to others the path we are called to take.

Please give us the courage to decide to follow You fully. Amen.

August 2025 – Pope's Intention - For mutual coexistence

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons.

Who do you love first and foremost?

Jesus challenges His disciples to examine who they love first and foremost. A true disciple loves God above all else and is willing to forsake all for Jesus Christ. Jesus insists that His disciples give Him the loyalty which is only due to God, a loyalty which is higher than spouse or kin. It is possible that family and friends can become our enemies if the thought of them keeps us from doing what we know God wants us to do. Does the love of Jesus Christ compel us to put God first in all we do?

The Gospel message is good news for those who seek pardon, peace and the abundant life which God offers us through His Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus offers true freedom to those who believe in Him - freedom from slavery to sin, Satan and the oppressive forces of hatred and evil that can destroy body, mind and spirit. Do we listen to the voice of your Savior and trust in His word?

Fr. Denis Vaiz
