Welcome to

St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

August 31st 2025 – 22nd Sunday in Ordinary time - Year C

Dear Lord, I come before You with a humble heart, recognizing that I am nothing without You.

I submit myself to Your will and Your ways, knowing that You are the one who exalts and humbles. I pray for a transformation in my heart, that I may not be driven by a need for earthly acclaim, but by a genuine desire to bring glory to Your name. I ask for Your grace to help me humble myself before You and others and to aside my pride and selfish desires.

All this I ask in Your Holy Name, Amen.

August 2025 – Pope's Intention - For mutual coexistence

Let us pray that societies, where co-existence seems more difficult, might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons.

He who exalts himself will be humbled:

What is humility and why should we make it a characteristic mark of our life and action? Humility frees us to be our true selves and to avoid despair and pride. Humility is the queen or foundation of all the other virtues because it enables us to view and judge ourselves correctly, the way God sees us. Humility leads to true self-knowledge, honesty, realism, strength and dedication to give ourselves to something greater than ourselves. Humility frees us to love and serve others selflessly, for their sake, rather than our own. Paul the Apostle, gives us the greatest example and model of humility in the person of Jesus Christ, who emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, ...who humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. The Lord Jesus gives grace to those who seek Him humbly. Do we want to be a servant as Jesus served?
