

Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
September 21st 2025 - 25th Sunday in Ordinary time - Year C

“Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor .” (Psalm 113:1a)

Generous God, we come here today to learn about Your love for us.

We come from different homes and diverse backgrounds; we carry different worries and concerns; we bring different gifts and varied talents. And You welcome and accept us equally; You understand and forgive us all freely; You cherish and love us each abundantly.

Help us to live our lives inspired by Your generosity, reassured by Your mercy, and empowered by Your love. Amen.

September 2025 – Pope’s Intention
For our relationship with all of creation

Let us pray that inspired by St. Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

Hope in God and His merciful help:

In the parable of the rich man who refused to help the beggar named Lazarus Jesus paints a dramatic scene of contrasts - riches and poverty, heaven and hell, compassion and indifference, inclusion and exclusion. We also see an abrupt and dramatic reversal of fortune. Lazarus was not only poor and a beggar, he was also sick and unable to fend for himself. He was "laid" at the gates of the rich man's house.

The dogs which licked his sores probably also stole the little bread he got for himself. Dogs in the ancient world symbolized contempt. Enduring the torment of these savage dogs only added to the poor man's miseries and sufferings.

The rich man treated the beggar with contempt and indifference, until he found his fortunes reversed at the end of his life! In God's economy, those who hold on possessively to what they have, lose it all in the end, while those who share generously receive back many times more than they gave away.

The name Lazarus means God is my help. He did not lose hope in God. The rich man served wealth rather than God. In the end the rich man became a beggar! Those who put their hope and security in the kingdom of heaven will not be disappointed.

This 3rd Weekend

We remember the sick people who are admitted in hospitals and at home.

Let us pray for them.

Almighty ever living God, healer of the sick, we turn to You in this time of illness. Relieve the worry and sorrow of the sick persons among us with Your gentle love and grant them The grace and strength to accept this burden. We place them under Your care and humbly ask that You restore Your servants to good health again. Amen.

Mass Intentions

A beautiful tradition in the Catholic Church is to have a Mass offered in the memory of or in honor of a person, or for a special intention. There is no charge to request a Mass, but a donation is welcome and gratefully accepted. The usual donation is $15.
