

Welcome to St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

September 28th 2025 - 26th Sunday in Ordinary time - Year C

“If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead”
Luke 16:31

“I know that the Lord secures justice for the poor .” (Psalm 140:12)

God of Abraham and Lazarus, we confess how often we are tempted by worldly desires and become insensitive to those who have nothing. We pray for those who, like Lazarus, are ignored and neglected in our world, suffering at the gates of our society. Bind your people together in compassion, that we may be shining witnesses to Your grace. For the rich man ignored the poor man, a lesson for us to not pass by those who suffer while we are focused on our own busy lives. May we find true riches in love and charity. Amen.

September 2025 – Pope’s Intention For our relationship with all of creation

Let us pray that inspired by St. Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures, who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

God's words for the poor and the rich:

The Gospel reminds us that God has the last and definitive word over rich and poor. We have plenty of guidance on what God expects of us. We have the prophets like Amos, the scriptures, the social teaching of the church, the preaching and example of Christ (the One who came back from the dead) and the witness of the saints. This should focus our attention and inform our priorities.

Our faith compels us to be committed to working for justice and against poverty. Poverty in its broadest sense includes the lonely, the sick, bereaved, those trapped in addiction or anxiety and those unable to forgive.

Our gifts are not for hoarding or self-indulgence. The name of Abraham is mentioned, a reminder that we have a covenant responsibility to each other. God's covenant is with an entire people which is one family. (2 Sam 7:8-17). Pope Francis says: "I ask all people of goodwill to help build a culture of encounter, solidarity and peace."

We are given vision and take our direction from God and this helps us to act out of love. Love is sensitive, attentive, proactive, generous and relieves suffering. Be aware of the Lazarus' in our own communities...they may need our help in this life and we may need their help in the next.

Fr Denis Vaiz

This 4th Weekend

We remember those who have died in our families.

Let us pray for the repose of their souls.

O God! Listen to the prayers of Your Church on behalf of the faithful departed and grant to Your servants, whom we remember today, the inheritance promised to all. We make this prayer through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Mass Intentions

A beautiful tradition in the Catholic Church is to have a Mass offered in the memory of or in honor of a person, or for a special intention. There is no charge to request a Mass, but a donation is welcome and gratefully accepted. The usual donation is $15.

Is God calling you to be a priest?

You are not alone.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart.....He will direct your path.” (Proverbs. 3:5-6)

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process in which adult men and women become part of the Catholic Church. Through its witness, service and catechesis, the whole parish community offers the invitation and support necessary for men and women to be welcomed as members of the community.

Adults who are not yet baptized are accepted into the process as catechumens and prepare to receive the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist) at Easter each year.

Those already baptized in another Christian tradition are welcomed as candidates for full communion and prepare to be received into the Catholic Church at a suitable time. A team of Catechists journeys with the catechumens and candidates for a number of months, meeting on the second, third, and fourth Sundays of each month following the 10 am Mass.

Please contact St. Andrew Parish Office at 705-566-1876.
