

Welcome to
St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
October 5th 2025 - 27th Sunday in Ordinary time - Year C

“Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving.” (Psalm 95:2)

Lord, You told us that even a mustard seed of faith can move mountains. We pray that this tiny spark of faith within us would be enough to uproot any obstacles in our path and plant them in the sea, according to Your will. Help us, to be faithful in all that You call us to do, both in big and small decisions. Grant us a humble heart and a spirit of surrender, so that we may follow Your guidance and do Your bidding with obedience. We ask that You would increase our faith, that we might truly grasp the depth of Your power and the greatness of the God we serve. Amen.

October 2025 – Pope’s Intention

For collaboration between different religious traditions

Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity.

The Holy Spirit helps us to grow in expectant faith:

What did Jesus mean when He said to His disciples that our faith can move trees and mountains as well. The term "mountain remover" was used for someone who could solve great problems and difficulties. What appears impossible to human power is possible to those who believe in God's power. Faith is a gift freely given by God to help us know God personally, to understand His truth, and to live in the power of His love. God expects more from us than we can simply do by ourselves. That is why Jesus gives us the gift and power of the Holy Spirit who helps us to grow strong in faith, persevere in hope, and endure in love.

Faith in God is the key for removing obstacles and difficulties which keep us from doing His will. We belong to God and our lives are no longer our own. Our joy and privilege is to follow the Lord Jesus and to serve in the power of His love and goodness. The Lord Jesus is ever ready to work in and through us by His Spirit for his glory. For our faith to be effective it must be linked with trust and with obedience - an active submission to God and a willingness to do whatever he commands. Do we trust in the grace and strength which God freely gives to help us resist temptation and to overcome obstacles in doing His will?

Mass Intentions

A beautiful tradition in the Catholic Church is to have a Mass offered in the memory of or in honor of a person, or for a special intention. There is no charge to request a Mass, but a donation is welcome and gratefully accepted. The usual donation is $15.

October - The Month of the Holy Rosary and Mission

The Month of October is observed as the Month of the Holy Rosary and Missions.

How beautiful it is to discover this providential similarity.

The Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7th, which commemorates the Christian victory at the Battle of Lepanto, is highly considered as a participation in the evangelising mission of the church. And according to the catechesis of Pope Francis, there is no mission without the Rosary, because mission is also and foremost a prayerful action.

With our rosaries, we are expected to enter into a month-long devotion in October, praying not only for our own personal intentions and needs, and for peace in the world, but also for the evangelising mission of the church and for missionaries.

We might not be able to give to the mission by going, but we can go to the mission by giving. Giving not only in terms of our financial and material support for the missions and for missionaries, but rather in terms of our spiritual support of "prayer".

As we passionately hold on to our rosaries in this month of October, let us be intentional in praying for all the works of evangelisation within and outside the walls of the church. At every bead or decade of the rosary, let us remember all evangelizers and missionaries especially those facing all forms of humanly orchestrated challenges.

May our Lady of the Holy Rosary, the first missionary who took Jesus to Elizabeth during the visitation, intercede for us all, Amen!

May Our Lady of the Rosary, the Patron Saint of Canada, through her intercession make us carriers of the good news of Christ her Son, Amen!
