

Welcome to St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church

November 9th 2025 - Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome- Year C

“The waters of the river gladden the city of God, the Holy dwelling of the Most High!” (Psalm.46:5)

Heavenly Father, Cleanse the temple of my body, mind and spirit. Purify my heart and make it white as snow. Burn away all impurities within me. Remove every spiritual stain from my life.

Let Your refining fire purge my soul. Sweep through me like a mighty wind. Uproot every seed of darkness in my life. Fill me with Your purifying presence. Let Your light dispel all shadows within me. Breathe new life into my cleansed being. I surrender my unclean thoughts to You. Give me the strength to resist temptation. Amen.

Jesus burns with zeal for His Father's house:

Jesus referred to the temple as His Father's house which was being made into a "house of trade" or "den of robbers." That is why He used physical force to expel the money-changers. The prophecy of Malachi foretold the coming of the Lord unexpectedly to His Temple to "purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, till they present right offerings to the Lord." Jesus' disciples recalled the prophetic words from Psalm 69: "Zeal for Your house will consume me." This was understood as a prophecy describing the Messiah. Here the disciples saw more clearly Jesus as the Messiah who burned with zeal for the house of God.

The Jewish authorities, however, wanted proof that Jesus had divine authority to act as He did. They demanded a sign from God to prove Jesus right, otherwise, they would treat Him as an imposter and a usurper of their authority. Jesus replied that the sign God would give would be Jesus' death on the cross and resurrection from the tomb: "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews did not understand that the temple Jesus referred to was His own body. The "tent of His body" had to be destroyed to open the way to the presence of God for us. God's word enlightens our minds and purifies our hearts that we may offer God fitting worship and enjoy His presence both now and forever. Do we burn with zeal for the Lord's house?

Our Parish walk at St. Andrew the Apostle on November 16th will start after Mass forgiveness. Our pilgrimage will continue to 3 other areas on the church grounds procession at the end * Wear traditional clothing from your country of origin if possible.
